

one simple
step

take back your meds
on April 26th

Location:

Time:

Protect your loved ones by disposing of unwanted, unused or expired opioid prescriptions safely at a Take Back Day site.

Last year, Washington residents returned 13,571 lbs of medication on National Take Back Days. Over 340,233 lbs of medication have been safely disposed of at Take Back Day sites since 2016, reducing access to expired, unused, or unwanted medication.¹

¹Source: Drug Enforcement Administration

